Dear Wesley:

Your letter and the request it contains has been placed in the hands of our missions committee. It is extremely doubtful whether I will be able to prevail on them to assist you in this matter due to definite plans they already have for our greatly increased missions budget. Obviously, I am in great sympathy of the situation as you described it and will attempt to contact people in this area that might could offer some help.

At this point my own burdens with the work here, Herald of Truth radio sermons, and the attempt to finish my Master's Degree in the next few months has placed severe limitations on any outside work that I might be able to do for this cause.

Please be assured that we will have this matter in our prayers. If I am able to persuade the brethren to help in some way, we will notify you immediately.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
